

the Early Years 1931-1938 II

Selected events in the Rebbe's life Between the years 1928 - 1938

BERLIN

Warsaw: November, 1928: The Rebbe's marriage to the Rebbetzin

Berlin: January, 1929: The Rebbe & Rebbetzin move to Berlin.

Berlin: 1928-1930: The Rebbe is enrolled at the University of Berlin.

Riga: October, 1930: The Rebbe & Rebbetzin visit the Previous Rebbe in Riga, Latvia for the month of Tishrei. They continue going on these visits throughout most of the years the Rebbe and Rebbetzin are in Berlin and Paris.

Riga: October, 1930: The first known public Farbrengen addressed by the Rebbe in the Tzerei Agudas Yisroel ballroom in Riga, Latvia. Throughout the years that followed, the Rebbe would publicly address the Chassidim on Chol Hamoed Sukkos.

Berlin: July, 1932: The Nazis take control of Germany's National Parliament.

Berlin: Winter, 1933: The Previous Rebbe visits Berlin for health reasons; the Rebbe is at his side.

Berlin: January, 1933: Hitler becomes Chancellor of Germany

Paris: March, 1933: The Rebbe & Rebbetzin move to Paris

PARIS

Paris: October 19, 1933: The Rebbe enrolls in an ESTP undergraduate course.

Warsaw: October, 1934: The Rebbe audits the central Lubavitcher Yeshiva in Warsaw for his father-in-law.

Góra Kalwaria, Poland: November, 1934: On a mission from his father-in-law, the Rebbe visits with the "Imrei Emes" - the Gerer Rebbe, upon the passing of his son.

Vienna: End of 1934 through much of 1935: The Rebbe accompanies the Previous Rebbe to Poland, Czechoslovakia and Austria, serving as his secretary.

Warsaw: July, 1935: First issue of Hatamim is published, edited by the Rebbe.

Paris: October, 1935: The Rebbe enrolls in an ESTP graduate program.

Otwock: October, 1936: The Rebbe & Rebbetzin's last known visit to the Previous Rebbe's court in Poland.

Vienna: June, 1937: The Rebbe oversees the German translation of the Previous Rebbe's letter about Chabad Philosophy.

Vilna: Circa, 1937: The Rebbe visits and corresponds with Rabbis Chaim Ozer Grodzensky and Baruch Ber Leibowitz, on a mission from the Previous Rebbe.

Paris: March, 1938: The Previous Rebbe visits Paris for health reasons; the Rebbe serves as his secretary.

Paris: March 25, 1938: The Rebbe receives a Masters equivalent in Mechanical & Electrical engineering from ESTP.

www.jemedia.org